

THIS WRESTLING match has more referees in the ring than combatants, but the picture helps show one of the activities performed each week in the city's new class in wrestling, boxing, and tumbling. The group, including boys and youths from ages 10 through 20, normally meets on Wednesday evenings at the City Park. In deference to the Civil Defense meeting last night, however, this week's session is slated for tonight, 7:30 to 9:30 at the park. Shown practicing a "groaner's" hold on Eddie Ower (on hands and knees) is Clifford Moffett. Watching for fair play—and, perhaps, learning a thing or two—are Boxing Coach William Smith (left), Recreation Director Philip T. Mitchell, and Wrestling Coach Ralph Hurwit.

Around the Square

We don't know what to make of this one. Mrs. Lucille Eaton, civic leader and wife of the councilman, presented us with two huge lemons Tuesday. (The largest one had a circumference of 12 inches.) Hmmmm! Wonder if there was a hidden meaning behind the gift. We've heard that troublesome, unreliable autos sometimes are considered lemons. . . . Could she be saying that as an editor—no, no, that couldn't be it. Anyway, thanks for the fruit, Mrs. Eaton.

Councilman Noren (ever ready) Eaton was right on the job following the quake Monday morning. He says he couldn't pick up any stations on his radio, so concluded that Los Angeles had fallen. He rushed down to the City Hall to help out with Civil Defense. Yep, that's right, Mr. Eaton was the only one who showed up.

The quake gave Ruth Malone, the NEWS' society writer, the heebie-jeebies. She had read herself to sleep the night before with an archaeology book that described how ancient civilizations were buried during tremendous earthquakes. When Mrs. Malone awakened with a start to find her bed jumping around a bit, she was sure the end had come.

The small fry took the rumble—for most of them, their first—without batting an eye. Mike Ward, age 5, had a little trouble calling it by the right name, though. He preferred to label it an "earthquake." And who's to say his term is not more descriptive?

First Mayor of Sierra Madre in Car Death:

C. W. Jones Awaits Trial

C. W. Jones, the first mayor of Sierra Madre and president of the local Historical Society, pleaded not guilty Saturday to the technical charge of reckless driving homicide.

He is at liberty on $2000 bail, awaiting jury trial in the city of Richmond, Ind. The pioneer Sierra Madren was arrested after his car reportedly struck two boys on the highway 18 miles from Economy, Ind. One of the boys, Dwayne Dick, 10, died Friday at Reid Memorial Hospital in Richmond.

Sheriff's deputies quoted Mr. Jones as saying that he was unaware that his car had run down the boys. In a long distance telephone conversation with the NEWS yesterday, Wayne County Sheriff Ora Wilson described Mr. Jones as "a grand old gentleman."

He explained that although the reckless driving homicide charge is comparable to the charge of manslaughter in other states, it can carry "stiff penalties upon conviction."

Sheriff Wilson reported that Mr. Jones will remain in Indiana until after the trial, which he said had not yet been scheduled.

This statement scotched rumors here that the prominent resident had started the journey home Tuesday.

Mr. Jones had been driving to his birthplace, Pennville, Ind., and intended to visit a brother and sister there. His grandson, Philip Proctor, 18, of San Diego, was accompanying him on the trip.

Wilbur S. Hull, 542 W. Montecito, was among the first to break the news to Mrs. Jones, 49 E. Alegria, and other close friends and relatives.

Leon Morrison, 12, also reported to have been hit in the accident, was said to be "improving" at the Reid Memorial Hospital.

City to Participate in Big Air Raid Drill

Sierra Madre will participate in a state region-wide air raid drill on Oct. 2.

The City Council voted to take part in the gigantic drill at Tuesday night's meeting. The action had been recommended by Col. Charles R. Gildart, associate Civil Defense director.

Sunnyside Lane Citizens Ask Help

The city's help in widening Sunnyside Lane was asked Tuesday night by William E. Bowers and two neighbors on Brookside Lane.

Mr. Bowers, 686 Brookside Lane, who, incidentally is vice-chairman of the City Planning Commission, pointed out that "this is the first time in 30 years that we've had the opportunity to widen the road on a private basis."

He called attention to the "very hazardous situation" caused by the 10-foot wide alley, 100 feet of which flanks an 8-foot drop off.

Mr. Bowers said he recently purchased an adjoining lot, obtained a lot split, moved a house, and is now ready to donate an 8-foot-wide strip of his land to make the lane 18 feet wide.

He announced that the Nature Friends Club has offered them 400 yards of dirt from the club's property, provided it will not put them in "a hazardous position" regarding landslides. "We don't want to proceed with construction until we get legal advice from the city," Mr. Bowers stated.

The city councilmen quickly pointed out that they could not guarantee that removing dirt from the club's property would not result in damage to the

Crowing Rooster Bothers Nuetzel; He Goes to Jail

Henry B. Nuetzel, 609 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, spent most of the weekend in jail after his neighbors complained that he stole and wrung the neck of one of their bantam roosters.

Mr. Nuetzel, a former city councilman, told officers that the rooster started crowing at 6:30 a.m. Saturday and "continued to crow every 30 seconds for an hour. I timed it."

Police quoted him as saying that when he couldn't stand it any longer he broke into the chicken yard and ran off with the offending rooster. En route, they said he wrung its neck and left it near a wall.

Entry into the chicken yard was made by ripping the window screen along the full width of the gate, apparently by using a beer can opener, police said.

Mrs. Lucille R. Paschall, 59 N. Sunnyside, the next-door neighbor who signed the complaint, estimated the value of the rooster at $5. Mr. Nuetzel was formally charged with petty theft, bantam rooster, and was jailed pending transfer to court.

Appearing before Municipal Court Judge H. Burton Noble Monday, Mr. Nuetzel was given a $25 suspended fine.

BUS LINES SET MEETING DATE TO AIR SIDES

Two opposing bus lines are working close to the deadline to settle their differences on who should serve residents of the Hastings Ranch.

The deadline, imposed by the State Public Utilities Commission, is Aug. 1.

It was announced this week that representatives of Pacific Electric Railway and Pasadena City Lines will meet on July 30 in an attempt to solve the franchise hassle.

Results of this session will be presented to the commission at its meeting Friday, Aug. 1.

PE claims exclusive rights to the area by virtue of a contract drafted in 1940. The company is reported to have refused expanding its service in the ranch beyond the present bus route to and from Sierra Madre.

LIONS, MASONS TO HEAR JUDGE WILLIAM McKESSON

Superior Court Judge William B. McKesson will address a joint meeting this evening of the Sierra Madre Lions Club and Masonic Lodge.

The meeting, with the Lions as hosts, is scheduled for 7:15 p.m. at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Judge McKesson, who is presiding judge of the Juvenile Department of Superior Court, will describe the fight in which he has pioneered against the use of narcotics by juveniles.

The veteran jurist has specialized in combating juvenile delinquency, particularly in the field of dope addiction since its alarming growth during the past few years. Judge McKesson sees a marked decrease in the use of narcotics by juveniles, however, within the past several months.

Except for two years, 1945-47, when he was appointed by Governor Warren as a member of the three-man California Youth Authority, he has served continuously on the Superior Court Bench since 1944.

Before that, for 17 years, he served as legal adviser in the county counsel's office and from 1939 to 1944 was chief trial deputy in charge of all litigation involving the county and the 140 some school districts included within the county.

Judge McKesson is active in civic and fraternal circles, and served as the first district governor of District 4 D-1 of Lions International. At the present time he is international counselor of Lions International.

As a Mason, he is past master of San Marino Lodge No. 685, a member of the Los Angeles Consistory of the Scottish Rite. He has served on important committees of the Masonic Grand Lodge and, in 1947 served as grand orator of the Grand Lodge of Masons in California.

EXPERT SAYS AGE TO DOOM HIGHLAND TREES

The Monterey pine trees on East Highland, between Baldwin and Canon avenues, are dying of old age.

That was the gist of a report received by the City Council Tuesday night from City Administrator R. Merritt Baker. Mr. Baker obtained his information from A. J. Barton, superintendent of roadside trees with the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

Residents in the area had asked the city to take steps to save the ailing trees. But Mr. Barton pointed out, in effect, that although forced feeding and "other measures" could probably prolong their lives it would be just a matter of time until the city had to remove them anyway.

The life expectancy of that type of pine tree is between 30 and 35 years, Mr. Barton said, so the city's best action would be to replace each one, as it dies, with a more durable tree for roadside use.

FIRE SWEEPS PARTS OF 3 PROPERTIES

A brush fire early Monday afternoon burned portions of three lots in the area near 61 E. Orange Grove.

Volunteer firemen responded at 1:25 p.m. to an anonymous woman who telephoned that the blaze was approaching a garage and "you'd better hurry."

Fire Chief James C. Heasley theorized that the fire may have started from either of two compost piles at two separate properties or from an incinerator at the 61 E. Orange Grove address.

Mrs. R. B. McCowan told firemen that her mother, Mrs. W. T. Diek, visiting here from Bakerville, had lighted the incinerator shortly after 1 p.m., not knowing of the burning hours in Sierra Madre.

Chief Heasley reported, however, that spontaneous combustion from either of the compost piles still was "a possibility." He issued no citations.

Mothers Visit UCLA Demonstration School

Twenty mothers from the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School visited the university demonstration nursery school at UCLA last week.

This was the fifth annual visit made to see the kind of equipment used in this model nursery school and to observe the latest methods in nursery school education.

Rev. Hesse Accepts Call Of Lutherans

The Rev. Armin W. Hesse has accepted the call to become pastor of Faith Lutheran Church. He will come to Sierra Madre during the last week of August and preach his first sermon at the local church on Sunday, Aug. 31.

He has served the Riverside church since his graduation in 1937 from Concordia Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hesse have three children, ages 11, 6 and 1½, and hope to establish their permanent residence here soon.

The Rev. Mr. Hesse is mission-minded and is considered an outstanding leader in both his congregation and district. He is well known throughout the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church and in the Southern California District.

Meanwhile the Rev. H. W. Schmitt, who resigned as pastor of the Faith Lutheran Church last week, was honored at a farewell party Friday, July 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gerke, 602 Mariposa. A cash gift was presented the Rev. Mr. Schmitt who ends two years of service in Sierra Madre.

'Revive Chamber' Step Under Study

BUSINESSMEN'S GROUP CALLS MEETING, AUG. 4

Hopes for reviving the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce were expressed Monday night at a meeting of the Businessmen's Association, held at the City Hall.

The 14 members present agreed that the scope of the association's activities should be broadened and that a revival of the Chamber should be considered, with the present business group serving as a committee for business promotion with its own elective head.

Several merchants volunteered to prepare letters to all former Chamber of Commerce members and Businessmen's Association members, inviting them to a meeting to be held Monday night, Aug. 4, at the City Hall.

Association President Harold Stein said it was the unanimous feeling of those attending Monday that a Chamber of Commerce was needed in Sierra Madre.

The scheduled election of new association officers was held in abeyance pending the outcome of the Aug. 4 meeting.

Plans for the annual Dollar Days in September and Christmas decorations also were discussed.

New Parking Law Gets First Reading

First reading was given Tuesday night to the proposed ordinance that will set up one-hour parking in the downtown shopping center.

The new ordinance, when officially adopted, will call for the one-hour parking where two-hour parking is currently the rule. This area extends, roughly, from the Safeway Store east on Sierra Madre boulevard to the east end of Roberts Market, on Baldwin from Montecito to the old post office building, and all of Kersting Court. The parking limit, excepting Sunday and holidays, would be in effect from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Tom Schwartz Heads 48th GOP District

Thomas M. Schwartz, a former mayor of Sierra Madre, was elected chairman of the 48th Assembly District of the Republican Central Committee Tuesday.

Mr. Schwartz, active in civic affairs and a US Naval Reservist and veteran of World War II, succeeds Bruce Reagan, former state assemblyman, in the post.

He has been prominent in local GOP activities and frequently has been called "Mr. Republican of Sierra Madre."

Mitchell Says Register Now For Day Camp

Recreation Director Philip T. Mitchell reminded parents this week to "be sure and come to City School to register your children for Day Camp."

The first one-week session of Day Camp, to be held at Sierra Madre Villa Park, begins Monday, Aug. 4. This camp is open to boys and girls of the second and third grade.

The second camp, also for one week only, starts Monday, Aug. 11, and is for youngsters of grades 4, 5 and 6.

Mr. Mitchell said both camps will carry a registration fee of $1.25 for the week, which fee he pointed out was in line with what Monrovia and Arcadia day camps are charging.

The director announced that the school bus will be available for transportation to and from the park. It will pickup children at the school at 9:10 a.m., take them to the camp in time for the opening exercises at 9:30, then carry them back to school by 3:45 p.m. He said boys and girls should take their lunches, except on days when "cookouts" are scheduled.

Day camp activities will include arts, crafts, skills, hikes, sports, skills, contests, nature study, health and hygiene, camp cookery and civics.

CITY TO JOIN IN PROTESTING GAS RATE HIKE

Sierra Madre is lining up with several other San Gabriel Valley cities to protest rate increases proposed by Southern Counties Gas Company.

The City Council voted Tuesday night to pay $150 as the city's share in retaining the services of Clarence Winder, a rate engineer and member of the Pasadena Board of Directors, for combatting the rate hike.

City Administrator R. Merritt Baker pointed out that the gas company's proposed new rates would be boosts of about 20 per cent for domestic users and approximately 5 per cent for industrial users.

Sierra Madreans pay approximately $150,000 each year for natural gas under the present rates, he said, and the new rates, if approved, would mean an additional cost to residents of approximately $25,000 to $30,000 a year.

Local Citizens To Join Nixon Parade

Sierra Madreans will take part in the huge homecoming rally honoring Sen. Richard M. Nixon in his hometown of Whittier the night of Monday, July 28.

California's popular young senator was nominated for the vice-presidency of the United States at the recent National Republican Convention in Chicago.

SEN. RICHARD M. NIXON ... to get welcome

According to J. Caden Jenkins, who is in charge of Sierra Madre arrangements for the welcome, a large parade will start promptly at 7 o'clock and proceed directly to the Whittier

'BIG RUMBLE' LEAVES CITY WITH JUST MINOR DAMAGE

Sierra Madre took Monday's early morning earthquake right in stride, with only minor property damage reported throughout the city.

The dearth of multiple-story buildings here was generally conceded to be the reason Sierra Madre got off so easily.

The quake did budge one canyon home a little, and police went quickly to 549½ Brookside Lane when a neighbor reported that "the house next door is falling down."

Officers found that the structure had moved "a little bit," particularly the brick chimney.

A ruptured water pipe caused moderate damage at Reece's 5 and 10 Cent Store. Owner J. W. Reece became the only Sierra Madre "casualty" of the quake when he wrenched his back while trying to retrieve merchandise from under a flooded counter.

At Roess Market, the temblor left many canned goods scattered around the floor. But Owner David Roess said, "Miraculously, no bottles or jars were broken."

After a careful look around, Superintendent Charles A. Skutt diagnosed the City School building "as sound as a dollar."

As was the case in many Southland communities, residents here saw light flashes immediately following the quake. Robert Green, Sierra Madre office manager of Southern California Edison Company, said these flashes were caused by the slapping together momentarily of high tension wires.

Many Sierra Madreans reported minor "incidents" resulting from the Big Rumble. Among them were: a venetian blind fell at Artist Alfred James Dewey's studio, narrowing missing several paintings; Mrs. Ann Wagner reported a crooked picture; Mrs. J. P. O'Neill, 1130 S. Tropical avenue, Upper Hastings Ranch, said a recording machine was broken and a vase knocked over.

Subsequent shakers, including the sharp one at 12:55 a.m. yesterday morning, caused no local damage, according to reports.

The radio speech and training class, proposed as an addition to the summer session curriculum at City School, had to

CALL FOR BIDS EXPECTED YESTERDAY ON NEW SCHOOL

A call for bids was expected to go out yesterday for construction of the new Don Benito School in the Upper Hastings Ranch.

Pasadena Board of Education members had delayed the call for one week, until July 23, so a group of property owners protesting the proposed school site could have a chance to offer an alternate plan acceptable to the board and the architects.

Plans for the new school were approved by the school board last week.

Protesting residents were scheduled to meet this week with Architect Edward Frick and A. J. Glaser, director of buildings and grounds for Pasadena City Schools, in an attempt to reach a compromise.

Point of contention for several months has been a proposed 9-foot retaining wall topped with a 12-foot fence along the south boundary lines of the school site. The protesters have said this wall and fence, abutting on their properties, would impair the view and depreciate their property values. They have suggested, as an alternate idea, use of an existing 3-foot wall, an 8-foot embankment planted in shrubbery and topped by a 3-foot wall and wire fence.

Mr. Frick and Mr. Glaser have opposed this proposal because of possible flood hazards due to the 60-foot drop in elevation on the school property.

Bowling Takes Part in Air Defense Tests

Pvt. Don H. Bowling of Fort Baker, Calif., whose wife, Evelyn, lives at 165 N. Sunnyside, is participating in exercise "Operation Signpost" this week. He is with the 47th Antiaircraft Artillery Brigade, one of several army units in the first controlled training exercise geared to put the air defenses of the US and Canada on an all-out operational basis.

His antiaircraft batteries, working jointly with Canadian air defenses and a major portion of the Civilian Ground Observer Corps, comprise the team coordinated for this maneuver over the San Francisco and surrounding areas.

Private Bowling, integrated fire control specialist in the 464th AAA (AW) Battalion, entered the army in January of 1951. He is a graduate of John Muir College. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bowling, live at the Sunnyside street address.

'Like It Here' Say Zebals Of City

Not precisely newcomers to Sierra Madre—although they return after an absence of some time—are Mr. and Mrs. George P. Zebal, who have the former Barter home at 675 Orange drive.

Mrs. Zebal is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Walter D. Thurber of 470 Marzanita street. With her husband, an oil geologist who is serving as consultant for R. V. New, and two children, Bradley and Ronnie, she is enjoying her return to Sierra Madre.

They last lived in Dallas, Tex., before returning to this area, although—like all families of geologists—they have lived in places "too numerous to mention," Mrs. Zebal reports.

"And you can quote me—we love it in Sierra Madre," she concluded.

Jerry Swanson, son of Leslie Swanson of 83 W. Highland, plans to enter the same seminary in September.

Death Note Asks For Care Of Pet Dog

Hoping for "better luck" in the next world and charging her parents to take care of her pet dog, Jane Everest Tyler, 29, died last week, apparently a suicide, according to Sierra Madre police.

Miss Tyler's body was found in her apartment at 174 E. Montecito Thursday morning by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Tyler of Pasadena. An overdose of sleeping pills was blamed for her death.

A note, addressed to "Dear Mom and Pop," was reportedly lying on a bedside table and said:

"Please forgive me. I don't seem to be getting anywhere in this world. Maybe I'll have better luck in the next one. Please take good care of Jasper for me. Love, Jane."

Police said a phone call from Miss Tyler's employer, Myron Thom, DVM, veterinary surgeon, stating that she hadn't reported to work and that he could get no answer on the telephone, prompted Mr. and Mrs. Tyler to start the checking that ended in finding their daughter dead in her bed.

They first called Mrs. Rose Imus, manager of the apartments, who tried to enter Miss Tyler's apartment but was turned back by her pet dog, perched menacingly on the end of the young woman's bed. Mrs. Imus reported back, however, that Miss Tyler appeared to be normally asleep. The parents then drove hurriedly to Sierra Madre, called off the dog, and discovered that she was dead.

MESERVES ENTHUSIASTIC, TIRED AFTER GOP CONFAB

Returning home dead tired last week—but still bubbling over with enthusiasm—were the Robert Meserves of Hampton road, Hastings Ranch, who attended the National Republican Convention in Chicago.

They report that one of the highlights of their days and nights in the Windy City was their attendance at a reception honoring Richard M. Nixon, candidate for vice-president of the United States, held at the Knickerbocker Hotel.

The event was strictly for convention delegates and a few guests. The Meserves were among those few invited guests and they were able to meet the Nixons, Gov. and Mrs. Earl Warren, and Sen. and Mrs. William F. Knowland.

The Meserves also attended several caucus meetings where they met and heard Sen. Robert Taft, Harold Stassen, and Presidential Candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower.

At the acceptance speeches, Mrs. Meserve said they were seated only 40 feet from the speakers' platform in the convention hall.

During the entire week, sleep was practically an unheard of part of the schedule, according to Mrs. Meserve.

KNOW WHERE YOUR CHILD IS AT ALL TIMES, SAYS SHERIFF

"You MUST know the whereabouts of your child at all times," Sheriff E. W. Biscailuz today cautioned parents as missing child reports sharply increased.

In a nine-month period, more than 1800 children were reported missing, Sheriff Biscailuz added. In the majority of these cases, these children were gone from their homes from two to six hours, some over night, before parents became aware of their absence.

In a 30-day period, one of the sheriff's stations had 43 children reported missing, which amounted to more than 50 per cent of the missing child reports received for that month by all 12 of the sheriff's stations combined. Recently, this station had seven children reported missing in one day, and all at the same time.

"It is tragic indeed that parents will not heed the warnings contained in the newspaper accounts of children seriously injured, burned or molested because they were allowed to wander about the neighborhood or were unsupervised in play activities," Sheriff Biscailuz declared.

Anything you do to prevent accidents, waste, destruction or sickness—at any time—is Civil Defense.

County Fair Sets Deadlines For Entries

Los Angeles County fair officials today announced the closing dates when application blanks must be filed in order to make entries in the competitive departments. These deadline dates are important to the thousands of exhibitors throughout Southern California who are planning to enter articles or livestock. Necessary entry blanks are mailed with the premium books or can be had upon written request to the fair headquarters in Pomona.

Regardless of the closing date exhibitors are urged to get their forms in as early as possible this year to avoid an expected last minute rush of unusual proportions. The closing date schedule follows:

August 15, Junior fair feature and Future Homemakers exhibits.

August 21, Arts and crafts.
August 25, Junior fair large and small stock, agricultural, horticultural, apiary, farm mechanics, electric items and home economic food preparations.

Sept. 1, Senior livestock and carcass class entries, senior and junior flower shows and entries by boys' clubs.

Sept. 2, All domestic arts.

Sept. 5, Senior pigeons and rabbits.

Sept. 6, Individual plate dis-

FIRE FLAMES

Last week's "Fire Flames" informed the writer that many people read the column and the little "jackin' up" meant for those who fail to attend drills was somewhat alarming to readers.

Of course, they misunderstood just a little and are hereby assured that the fire department is not about to "blow up." Our attendance continues to be good. It is only those who have grown old in years and old on the job who need to be reminded occasionally.

There are however, many duties about a fire department that we cannot afford to neglect. Many of these duties require time and many of us DO NOT have the time to devote to them. We cannot ask too much of volunteers who are very busy men in their own vocation.

"To get to the front, cultivate the right background," could be twisted like this, "if you cultivate the background right, the fire won't get to the front." Yes sir, now is the time when all that growth of weeds should be away where sparks can't reach it. If you haven't cleared your place by this time, you are flirting with trouble.

We are trying so very hard to avoid that ever-looked-for major fire. It's been a long time since we have had a fire of any major consequence.

If residents will just picture a small grass fire starting in a back yard and dropping an ember onto a shingle roof where people are asleep. It is late at night. The police patrol car is at the other end of the city. A mother is awakened by the falling of burning embers from the roof of the house. She makes a desperate effort to get to the children's bedroom, but she is shut off by flame coming from the room. Frantic, she runs to the phone to find that the wires have all been burned off. Nothing to do but call for help. The flames are spreading rapidly.

A neighbor has arrived, while his wife phones the fire department. The police patrolman has reached the scene and with the neighbor makes a struggling endeavor to save the children. The children are being rescued just as the firemen are prepared to apply water to the burning building. The fire is extinguished after much damage has been done. Only to keep this picture from being too horrible, all lives are saved, but on many occasions throughout the nation, many lives are lost from the same sort of fire.

Despite the fact that we have been able to show a very low fire loss covering several years, the Board of Underwriters engineers is not too complimentary about it. At least they failed to brag very much on our work.

Maybe they feel that we are exceptionally lucky. I guess we are at that.

Surely some of the fire inspection work and the constant alertness, combined with continuous effort to keep the public fire conscious does some good. If not, then there is little use of worrying much about it. Let's just trust to luck? Shall we? After all, maybe engineers can be wrong. It doesn't seem good sense to get careless and not try to prevent fire. There are too many people like that already. We won't be that way. We'll just keep on tryin' to stop that fire that is tryin' to overtake us.

So-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o lets get together and keep a sharp lookout for the hazard that is liable to start a serious fire. We'd rather keep 'em out than put 'em out. Yours truly,

The population of Sierra Madre, a city of the sixth class, is 7769.

Cool Nights Curb Night Swimming

Cool evenings kept night attendance down at the Canyon Swimming Pool last week, but Manager Harold S. Turner looks for "better things" from now on.

"We feel confident that the return to hot weather will bring out more 'oldsters' for swimming," he said.

Mr. Turner expressed the hope that most youngsters will finish their swimming during the days so more adults can use the pool in the evenings.

Drug stores have developed, have expanded, far beyond what anyone could imagine in the days when they were merely "apothecary shops." The apothecary shop—now the prescription department of the modern drug store—has itself developed enormously with the growth of medical and pharmaceutical knowledge. College Stadium where the proceedings will go on the air nationally at 8 p. m.

There are no reserved seats, Mr. Jenkins said, and he suggests that Sierra Madreans who want to participate in this welcome for the senator get as early a start as possible.

The parade will form on the football field at Whittier High School on West Philadelphia street.

Several bands and units of veterans organizations will join in the parade to honor Candidate Nixon who served in the Navy during World War II.

"Chief" Wallace Newman, the senator's football coach while at Whittier College, is in charge of the program at the stadium. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Wendell Cramer of East Whittier Friends Church, Nixon's pastor.

Dr. Paul S. Smith, president of Whittier College, will introduce Senator Nixon, who will then greet the audience informally.

Lady Lions Note Club's 3rd Birthday

The Sierra Madre Lady Lions celebrated their club's third birthday last week at the home of Mrs. Carl Lotze, 1205 Valley View, Upper Hastings Ranch.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Delores Lotze, Mrs. Aurora Murray, and Mrs. Joan Oeltman of Arcadia.

Highlight of the ceremony came with the entry of the three-candled birthday cake decorated in green and yellow, club colors. Past President Mrs. Allene Welch was requested by Mrs. Aurora Murray, current president, to make a wish for the club before blowing out the candles.

Out-of-town Lionette guests included Mrs. Florence Unger, Mrs. Lee Brodsky and Mrs. Polly Randolph, officers of the Baldwin Park club; Mrs. Lou Curry and Mrs. Evelyn Headock, also of Baldwin Park; Mrs. Maybelle Voltz, Mrs. Betty Hinojos and Mrs. Marjorie Edwards, officers of the Monrovia club; Mrs. Mary Bolton and Mrs. Lora Miller of Azusa, and Mrs. Ruth Norton of San Francisco.

Mrs. Helen Meyer was welcomed as a new member.

Election of officers will feature the August meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Welch.

Kiwanians Trek To Annual Feed

Fourteen members and guests from Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club attended the annual San Dimas barbecue presented by the Claremont Kiwanis Club.

The local delegation assembled at the dental office of Dr. Al Burgess and then made the trip to San Dimas.

SUNNYSIDE LANE

City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn also expressed the opinion that the state street and highways code requires streets to be at least 20 feet wide, but he said he would have to study the section before positively stating that.

Mr. Bowers remarked that the city owns a tiny strip of land on Sunnyside Lane—the portion that includes the 8-foot drop—and the city probably would be liable if there were an accident there.

Councilman Noren Eaton replied that the city has no liability at present, since the land was never formally accepted as a street.

Irwin H. Erb, 677 Brookside Lane, called for "a little cooperation" by the city. The city should take more interest in this community (the 35 families living in the area) that is trying its best to improve Sierra Madre, he declared.

The other spokesman Tuesday night was Harold L. Debus of 731 Brookside Lane.

The councilmen promised more specific answers to the questions at the next meeting, after they have had a chance to inspect the property.

MRS. MINNIE M. DODSON, W. E. RICHARDSON WED

Mrs. Minnie M. Dodson of 258 Mariposa street was joined in marriage Saturday to W. E. Richardson of Long Beach, in an informal ceremony performed before the flower-banked fireplace at the new home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Belouske of 1959 Alta Oak drive, Arcadia.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Carl Smith, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Sierra Madre, before the immediate families and a few out-of-town guests.

The new Mrs. Richardson chose for this occasion a suit-dress of bluish-pink silk shantung, with which she wore navy blue accessories, and a corsage of white orchids.

Attendants were the bride's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redshaw of Arcadia. Mrs. Redshaw wore an ensemble of navy blue, set off with a corsage of gardenias.

A small reception followed the ceremony. Out of town guests who were present included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines and their son and daughter, Tommy and Judy, and Mrs. Thelma Edwards, all of Aledo, Ill.

After a trip to the north, during which they will visit Great Falls, Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will make their home in Long Beach.

VISITOR FROM NEW MEXICO

Mrs. J. R. Poe of Las Cruces, New Mexico, has been visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Neill, 1130 Tropical avenue, Upper Hastings Ranch.

Last weekend the O'Neills and Mrs. Poe drove to San Diego where Mrs. Poe will spend a few days with her son and his family, the R. P. Poes.

Sierra Madre City School may have to up the prices of cafeteria lunches.

"The cafeteria went into the hole by a considerable amount last year," explained School Board President Howell N. White Jr. "We hope we can continue serving our 25-cent lunches, but we're not sure yet."

The "considerable amount" was interpreted as several hundred dollars.

Council Members Visit Claremont Work Shop

Four representatives of the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council attended the week-long sessions of the annual Claremont Workshop from Monday through Friday last week.

They included the president, Mrs. John E. Conzelman, Jr., and Mrs. Daniel D'Arcy, Mrs. Charles Rizzo and the Rev. Donald Ostrander.

The Workshop each year studies problems of welfare at the community level, and this year the emphasis was placed on the well-being of the nation's youth. Title for the five-day session was "Youth Fights The Battle—Must The Children Pay The Bills?"

Each morning session was addressed by a prominent educator, psychiatrist or social worker, and most of those attending were social workers and professional staff members of community welfare groups.

Dr. Donald McNassar, dean of education for the graduate school at Claremont, led off with an address on "Environment for the Optimum Growth and Development of Children."

One of the outstanding psychiatrists in this area, Dr. Eugene Pomplian-Mindlin, was another member of the faculty, as was Dr. C. P. Loomis, pastor of the First Congregational Church of San Diego; Marian Nicholson of the U.S.C. School of Social Work, and Dr. Walter Hepper, president of San Diego State College, who made the closing address on Friday.

The local group will coordinate the material from the sessions and integrate it into the program for this city.

School Sells Two Houses

City School trustees have sold two of the school district's house located on N. Auburn avenue.

The houses were bought by the R. O. Osbrink firm of Los Angeles and are destined to be moved to Paris, Calif., for resale there.

Howell N. White Jr., president of the School Board, pointed out that the houses, originally bought by the district purely for school site development purposes, did not comply with Sierra Madre's building code and could not be used as dwellings within the city limits.

MEETING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN Hastings Ranch

KAY GATES—CUster 5-2183

Social news—a fraternity rush party given by Jack Harding at his parents' home, that of the Vern Harding's on Fairmeade road, for 40 prospective members of Phi Delta Theta of the USC campus; swimming, badminton, ping pong, and a table just loaded with snacks for that "in-between game nibbling." Also, a dinner party for eight at the Evan Cottam's home on Fairmeade road to discuss plans for the new Mormon church to be started soon on Sierra Madre Villa—the Robert Ashbys of the same street among the guests.

Vacations—The Ray Stiffs back on Fairmeade road from their auto trip of three weeks to Annapolis, Maryland, which included a sight seeing tour of Washington, D. C., for their children, Bonnie and Dennis, and a short stopover, enroute home, at Albuquerque, N. M., where they all enjoyed a large family reunion with Mr. Stiff's relatives; The John C. Talbott's home again on Hastings Ranch road—Mrs. Talbot, Julie, Peter and Nora, from a visit of a month in San Luis Obispo with Dr. Talbot's family, which the doctor attended the convention for medical directors of insurance companies at the Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia; Mrs. Thornton McCarthy, on Mayfair road, back from White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, where she attended her sorority convention with the Chi Omegas at the Greenbrier Hotel. She also made a short tour of the capitol city which she found quite changed in 10 years. (Incidentally, both Dr. Talbot and Mrs. McCarthy mentioned the extreme heat in the east and bemoaned the fact that neither of their hotels, the Homestead nor the Greenbrier, had the complete air conditioning systems common to the modern designed hotel); the Kenneth Simpsons, with Joan and Kent, just home on Fairmeade road from their auto trip through the midwestern states where they visited relatives in Michigan, Ohio and Missouri; and the Robert Adlers and son, Rickey, home on Shadow Grove road from a recent vacation in Las Vegas. Mrs. Adler's mother, Mrs. Mimi Kiersey, accompanied them on this trip, and she was particularly interested in the Last Frontier where there are many buildings, moved intact from old mining towns of Nevada. A group of these were from the town where Mrs. Kiersey lived in the early 1930's, which of course brought back fond memories to her. Side trips to Boulder Dam, Arizona, and swimming in Lake Mead, completed their stay there.

We understand one of our young men of the ranch has high aspirations these days—that of reaching Akron, Ohio, this year, via the soap box derby. He is Gary Harding, the younger son of the Vern Hardings on Fairmeade road. And, from what we hear, he is really building a smooth little auto. We are rooting for you, Gary, and the best of luck.

Storkland News—(It's really keeping us busy these days following that old bird). A son at the Edgar Hassler's on Hampton road, James Edgar; a boy, John Robert, at the Donald Berg's home on Landfair road; and another boy, Paul Cregan, at the Paul Ricatto's on Mayfair road; and a girl, Beverly Jean, at the Emil Barlow's on Canfield road. (Looking ahead a few years, we would say that Miss Barlow should have little competition for dates here in the ranch). Congratulations to all of the proud parents.

VACATIONING IN DESERT

Mrs. John E. Conzelman Jr. of 658 Mariposa avenue, accompanied by two of her four daughters, Kathy and Jan, left on Saturday to spend a week at the family's desert ranch in Yucca Valley.

Chief Warrant Officer Charles E. Welch was in town a few days last week visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Pappy) Welch, 590-G W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The Welchs spent part of their son's visit at their trailer at El Morro Beach.

Warrant Officer Welch, a veteran of 12 years of service in the Army, is currently assigned with the 44th Artillery Division at Camp Cooke, during World War II he accompanied Gen. Douglas MacArthur on his island-hopping comeback from New Guinea—a comeback that ended with the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay in 1945.

Before entering the service, he was a teacher and administrator at several military schools. Among his educational accomplishments were serving as principal of the Stonybrook Preparatory School for West Point, located on Long Island, and as dean of men at the Storm King Military College.

LA JOLLA STAY

Mrs. B. Nieman and her sister, Bertha L. Bowen, 330 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, have left to spend the coming winter at La Jolla.

LUMBER QUERY

OREGON BLOCK? No real estate subdivision. It's a temporary device to change direction of a logging cable by passing it around a stump.

SKIDDER? Not a car on a wet street. It's a logging engine, equipped with a steel mast.

SNOOSE? Not a cross between a snipe and a goose. It's Copenhagen Snuff (snus). Lumber jacks, who can't smoke when woods are dry, swear no lumber could be produced without Snoose.

SHAG? Not coarse hair. He's a brakeman on a logging railroad.

GOOD VALUE? Why, that's what you get when you deal with Hammond!

Given Yet To Salvation Army Fund?

With another week of soliciting still before them, representatives of the Salvation Army are renewing their appeal for Sierra Madreans to send their donations to the Bank of Sierra Madre.

The local sponsoring committee, headed by R. C. Lewis, chairman, and Al E. Morgan, treasurer, announced that many residents already have mailed in their contributions in the return envelopes sent every householder in Sierra Madre.

"We want to thank all who have helped so far in this annual Salvation Army fund campaign," said Mr. Lewis. "But at the same time we'd like to remind Sierra Madreans who have not yet done their bit to get their donations in as soon as possible."

QUALITY ALSO COUNTS

Many a car owner becomes so obsessed with the quantity of service he gets from a certain part of the car that he forgets all about quality, points out the National Automobile Club. An illustration is provided by the spark plug that gives one hundred thousand miles of service. That is a lot but the same cannot be said for the quality.

AROUND SQUARE

Stevie June, the 3½-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Garland F. Smith, summed it up this way: "My bed walked last night."

Lorne B. Pratt, like the Easter bunny, sometimes forgets where he leaves things. It's not eggs with Mr. Pratt, however, but Wistaria Vine signs. When the vine is in bloom he enthusiastically places posters announcing the fact at strategic spots in and out of town. Our quip of last week about one still being displayed at Rosemead and Foothill brought thanks (almost) from Lorne, who admitted that he had forgotten he posted one there.

For the past week now a grasshopper has been boarding with Art Connor in the vegetable department of Roess Market. The creature's meals—lettuce and a can of water—are left each day on a sack of grain which is his (or her) headquarters. No one is permitted to use fly spray in the 'hopper's general direction, and Art says he won't change his shirt for fear that the insect might not recognize him.

Club Hears About Coaxial Phone Cables

The intricacies of telephone equipment were explained and described for members and guests of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club Tuesday.

Knox Hagar, a representative of Southern California Water and Telephone Company, was program chairman for the day and presented two electronic engineers from the utility company.

The engineers explained and demonstrated the use of the company's coaxial cable.

GIRLS CAN VIE FOR PRINCESS OF WOOL TITLE

California "wool princesses," girls from 14 through 22 years of age, are urged to make their own clothes during their vacation as entries in the annual "Make it Yourself with Wool" contests to be held in 15 California cities from Sept. 20 to Oct. 15.

Thirty young women will be selected from these contests to compete for the state championship in San Francisco. The state winner will be elected "California Wool Princess of 1952" to represent the state at the national contest in Chicago in December, according to an announcement by Mrs. J. L. Fourness of Sacramento, state director for the California Wool Growers Association.

For residents of Los Angeles County, the preliminary contest will be held Thursday, Oct. 2, at the Singer Sewing Machine Center, 234 S. Market street, Inglewood.
